MOZAMBICAN buyers are reported to have placed $1,7 million worth of orders with Zimbabwean companies during a recent Mozambican inward buyer mission, said a spokesman for the market development component of the Zimbabwe Export Promotion Programme (ZEPP).

An estimated $11,3 million worth of orders is expected to be placed over the next 12 months as well, he said.

response from the Zimbabwean business community to the buyer mission, "where on the first morning in Harare, over 100 businessmen attended the open buyer-seller meeting. At least one significant joint venture discussion between a local company and a Mozambican company was being progressed," said the spokesman.

ZEPP is planning a Zimbabwean trade mission to Mozambique in September this year, following the success of this buyer mission. The next ZEPP inward buyer mission will comprise a group of Kenyan buyers who have been invited to Zimbabwe between April 3 and 7, 1989.
