[Text] Robert Mugabe, the president of the Republic of Zimbabwe, arrived in Maputo at 1150 today. This is Mugabe's second official visit to Mozambique. The first was made in his capacity as head of government. President Robert Mugabe was welcomed by President Joaquim Chissano, who was accompanied by Prime Minister Mario Machungo and Marcelino dos Santos, president of the People's Assembly. A 21-gun salute was fired in honor of President Robert Mugabe, who then inspected a guard of honor mounted by a Mozambique Armed Forces company. Bouquets of flowers were given to President Robert Mugabe and Joaquim Chissano by Mozambican children. Afterward, President Robert Mugabe greeted members of the Frelimo Party Political Bureau and government, and the diplomatic corps accredited to Mozambique.
