THE Mozambican President, Cde Joaquim Chissano, will make a brief stopover in Zimbabwe this morning, during which he is expected to meet Acting President Muzenda.

Cde Chissano is also expected to meet President Mugabe, who is on leave.

Meanwhile, to celebrate Mozambique's 16 years of self-rule, on June 25, a Harare-based theatre group, Zambuko/Izibuko, will stage a play called Samora Continua at the Queen Elizabeth School Hall on June 25 at 7 pm.

The play relates the struggle of the Mozambican people for their liberation from the colonial yoke of oppression and their fight for the establishment of a socialist state of Mozambique. It shows how Zimbabweans are grateful for the sacrifices made by the Mozambican people for Zimbabwe's independence.

The play would also show how the Mozambicans are suffering as a result of destabilisation from the South African regime and the MNR bandits.

All those who wish to attend would be expected to pay an admission fee of 50 cents.
