

FBIS-AFR-88-085
3 May 1988

Mozambique

3 Portuguese Citizens Arrested for Terrorism

LD021854 Lisbon Radio Renascena in Portuguese to Europe 1800 GMT 2 May 88

[Text] Three Portuguese citizens have been arrested in Mozambique. They are accused of belonging to a terrorist group that was about to go into action, particularly in the city of Maputo.

The Mozambican security services said that the Portuguese were caught with 200 kg of very powerful explosives in their possession. Without naming those arrested, the security services said they are part of a cell which infiltrated into Mozambique last February.